Honors Assembly At Sacred Heart

Honors Day Assembly opened at Sacred Heart Academy at 1 p.m. today with the passing of the Torch by the graduates to the 1969-70 seniors, who in turn presented a rose to the graduates.

The ceremony symbolized the exchange of the school's standards of truth, and loving memories by the two classes, according to Sister Mary Blanche, principal, who presided at the assembly.

Alumnae president Mary Agnes Talken then received the 159 graduates into the Alumnae Association.

Graduates holding offices, then turned their duties over to the seniors succeeding them during the coming school year.
